New Tasmanian products at the wood centre shop.

WORMWOOD CRAFTS

Peter Finn is a wood turner/wood carver who has developed a local business called Wormwood Crafts.

A large range of wood turned items are produced from his Midway Point workshop are sold statewide. Peter uses Tasmanian specialty timbers for his wood turning and also incorporates Tasmanian Oak in his range of products. His handcrafted furniture includes coffee tables to book shelves, but Peter considers his speciality to be his lidded boxes.

Items from the Wormwood Crafts range on sale at the wood centre shop include cheese knives, graters, letter openers, wine stoppers and magnetic bottle openers. Prices range from $4.50 for fridge magnets to $43.00 for a Myrtle burl platter.

These timber veneer albums are handcrafted locally, using mostly Tasmanian veneers such as Blackwood, Blackheart Sassafras, Silver Wattle, Myrtle, Huon Pine, Tasmanian Oak. They are for collections of treasured memorabilia or photos. They make a perfect gift and can be handed from one generation to the next.

The pages and interleaves are of archival quality and acid free, and the albums are held together by three brass interscrews. Magic dots are recommended for affixing photos etc, to the pages.

The albums come in three sizes. Currently in stock at the wood centre shop, small albums retail for $60.00 and medium for $90.00.

We also carry a range of Ossa Design, which are a range of quality homewares featuring Tasmanian Timbers.
